

CCLI Music Reproduction Licence™ (Event) Copy Report

Thank you for purchasing a CCLI Music Reproduction Licence™ (Event) from CCLI.

Please read the following notes before choosing songs to use at your event.

Please enter on this Copy Report full details of all the authorised songs you reproduce during your event as follows:
Enter the number of copies reproduced by photocopying or digital scanning of a song from a publication (eg hymnbook, .pdf download)
Enter the number of shared digital copies of a song by email or if your musicians share a song using a device-based system (e.g. a .pdf purchased from a publisher website, or a .pdf scan you have made when copying a songbook)
Example 1 Five copies of a song are photocopied from a hymnbook for use by the event musicians. You should report 5 for the song, ensuring you specify the correct publication from which the copy was made. Example 2 A .pdf Chord Sheet is downloaded from SongSelect and imported into a device-based system that enables you to share the music with four other band members during your event. You should report 4 for the song and publication, one for each device it was shared with. Example 3 A song .pdf is downloaded from a publisher's website. It is emailed to four fellow musicians. All five band members print out a copy for use during the event. You should report 9 for the song and publication, one for each recipient of the email (4) and one for each print out made (5).

This report must be completed and returned by email to: (UK): uk@ccli.com / (IE): ie@ccli.com no later than one week after your event ends.

The Event Licence is valid for a period of fourteen days and expires on the date shown on your Licence Certificate. If your event lasts longer than fourteen days an additional Event Licence will be required.

Please note: All copies of words/music or other material made or stored under the terms of this licence must be destroyed/erased following expiry of the licence.

You are not permitted to photocopy anything from this music publication

Yes

Are both the words and music in the Public Domain?

A song becomes Public Domain 70 years after the death of all the author(s) / composer(s).

Yes

Use this Copy Report to report full details of the publications and songs you have photocopied

No

Are the copyright owner(s) of both the words and music on the CCLI Music Reproduction Licence™ Authorised Catalogue List?

The CCLI Music Reproduction Licence™ only permits you to photocopy songs that are included in the licence scheme. You must therefore check that the copyright owner(s) appear on the CCLI Music Reproduction Licence™ Authorised Catalogue List (ccli.com/copyright-licences/authorised-lists/) before you photocopy the song.

Click on 'Authorised Catalogues' under the heading of Music Reproduction Licence. Please then verify in SongSelect whether the song is covered.

The copyright owner(s) can usually be found next to the © symbol at the base of the song.
